VOLUME CVI.---NO. 73. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 27, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

DON'T BE HYPNOTISED.

Hoodwinked, hoodooed, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute for Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with its record of nearly 40 years, embracing hundreds of thousands of cures of woman's peculiar ailments. It's the only remedy for woman's ills sold by druggists, that is not full of "booze"—poor whisky, or bad alcohol.

A guarantee of $1000 is offered that "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium or other harmful drug. Keeps in any climate.

"Favorite Prescription" is a powerful invigorating tonic, and imparts strength to the whole system and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to attempt to palm off upon you an alcoholic substitute for this world-famed medicine. You know what you want. It's his business to meet that want. When he urges some substitute he's thinking of the larger profit he'll make—not of your welfare.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away 300,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If out of health, write to old Dr. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice without charge.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets These sugar-coated little Pellets are the smallest, the easiest to take, and the easiest in the way they act. No griping, no violence, no disturbance to the system, diet or occupation. They are the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago. They have been much imitated but never equaled. They come in vials, always fresh and reliable: a convenient vest-pocket remedy.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Confession of a Murderer.

It is stated that a man who was shot recently in Canada confessed before his death to having taken part in two murders in Ireland. For one of them a man named Twiss, whom he declared to have been innocent, was hanged at Cork a few years ago. The victim was a farmer named Donovan, who lived near Newmarket, county Cork. His body was found one morning on the bed on which his 10-year-old son was sleeping, and a red trail showed where it had been dragged from the yard, where the murder was committed.

Twiss protested his innocence twice before his execution and Alderman Meade, who was mayor of Cork at the time, has told a reporter that it was always his firm conviction that Twiss was guiltless. Alderman Meade said, moreover, that at a meeting in Dublin in favor of a reprieve for Twiss he charged a constabulary officer with a knowledge of Twiss's innocence, and with an attempt to induce the condemned man to incriminate a well-known citizen of Cork in return for $500 and a free pardon.

It was also suggested to Twiss, and said the Alderman, that he should say that the man referred to had supplied him with money not only for the murder for which he was condemned, but also for several outrages which had taken place in County Kerry. Twist, however, refused the offer. "For making these statements," continued Alderman Meade, "I was threatened with a writ by this official. But he never went further, because I was in possession of facts which showed that the government knew that Twiss was innocent of the crime for which he was hanged."

The other murder was committed at Kilbane, County Limerick, in August, 1902. Two laborers who had slept together were found with their throats cut. One was dead; the other recovered and was charged with the crime, but the jury disagreed three times, and further proceedings were abandoned.

Rejects Rockefeller's Gift.

Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Columbus, and moderator of the general council of Congregational churches of the United States, in a sermon delivered in Columbus, Ohio, yesterday, discussed the gift of $100,000 made by John D. Rockefeller to the American Board of Missions. He said: "The money proffered to our board of missions comes out of a colossal estate whose foundations were laid in the most relentless rapacity known to modern commercial history. The success of this business from the beginning until now has been largely due to unlawful manipulation of railway rates. The United States government is now engaged in a strenuous attempt to ferret out and punish this injustice. And the people of the United States have a tremendous battle on their hands with the corporate greed which has intrenched itself in this stronghold and has learned to use the railways for the oppression and spoliation of the people. And now, on the eve of this battle, they are asked to accept a great gift of money from the man who more completely than any other represents the system they are summoned to fight. I hope they are not mean enough to take his money and then turn and fight him. I hope they are not so faithless to their obligations as to take his money and shut their mouths or become his apologists. We do not want this man's money. To accept it will be to work the contempt of millions of honest men; to reject it will strengthen our churches in the affection and respect of millions who are inclined to doubt whether the churches love God more than Mammon. Our missions will be richer and stronger without it than with it, and we shall lose nothing by our loyalty to the things unseen and eternal."

Maniac Killed.

Ernest C. Herron, of Cheshire, Ct., while violently insane, smashed his way with a brick into the home of Attorney P. F. Cassidy, at Woonsocket, Saturday morning, and was shot and killed by the lawyer, who was in a bedroom protecting his mother and three sisters.

It was about 4 o'clock when the members of the Cassidy household heard the crash of breaking glass. Mr. Cassidy got a revolver, and taking his mother and sisters into a bedroom awaited the man's arrival. As he entered the apartments Cassidy shouted and warned him to get out, and when he failed to do so fired a shot in the air, at the same time shutting the bedroom door in his face.

Herron broke the panel of the door with the brick, and at short range Cassidy fired the shot which ended the man's life two hours later. Later in the day the body was identified.

Members of Herron's family said that he had been acting strangely of late. He had become deranged over religion, they said. He had been working on a farm in Cheshire, and had devoted a large portion of his time to the study of the Bible. He appeared at his mother's home in Fall River Wednesday, and after talking a few moments in an irrational manner burst open the door and left the house. On Thursday he visited a brother in the city and had a violent spell in the Union station, escaping from the custody of his brother after a fight.

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another telling her the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, a woman full of sympathy for her sick sisters, and above all, a woman who has had more experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day.

Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as they have been.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of instructions and followed your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl. I wish every suffering woman in the land would write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

No other medicine in all the world has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore no prudent woman will accept any substitute which a druggist may offer.

If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Pleasant and Harmless.

Don't drug the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, draws the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals and soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough. Sold by all druggists.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

GOOD FIGS CHEAP.—To close them out I will sell 250 lbs. Figs at 7c pound. Price before Christmas 10c. J. C. MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, MAR. 27, 1905.

MR. J. D. ROCKEFELLER'S offer of $100,000 to the cause of foreign missions is still affording ministers in certain cities a subject upon which to ventilate themselves, if not to ride into cheap notoriety. Most of the gentlemen of the cloth seem disposed to turn their backs upon the donation as filthy lucre. With no desire to make any apology for the plutocracy of the present day, nor to defend the means by which colossal fortunes have been amassed, it is safe to say that in many cases those who are most pronounced in rejecting the donation of the multi-millionaire would pose as Cœsuses had they the opportunity. It reminds us of a story told by John S. Wise in Alexandria in 1885 when he was a candidate for Governor against Gen. Fitzhugh Lee. The yarn was in regard to a fox who, with his mouth full of feathers, was running around other animals cursing all who love geese. Mr. Rockefeller's motive in donating $100,000 for church work has been questioned by some, but equally as many others prefer to believe the sum was tendered with no ulterior object in view. Some ministers, in defense of the donor, have suggested that Zaccheus's fortune did not come through honest channels, yet his munificence was not rejected. In this connection it may be said that Cyrus, who had devastated nations in order to set up a universal empire, expended vast sums in accelerating the return of the Jews to their own land at the termination of the Babylonish captivity. The name of this renowned potentate of antiquity was written in the scriptures centuries before he was born and the part he was to play in the history of the Israelites given in detail. If this scourge and his ill-gotten gains was owned of high heaven, there must be a chance for Mr. Rockefeller.

AGAIN the Delaware Legislature has adjourned sine die without fulfilling its constitutional duty to elect a United States Senator. The result was the fulfillment of the prophecy, "Addicks or nobody." Nobody was elected, and for two years Delaware will have but one Senator. This has happened four times in ten years. During part of that time Delaware had no representative in the Senate at all. The conspicuous cause of this failure to take proper part in the councils of the nation, with its attendant features of assorted political corruption, is, of course, J. Edward Addicks. In the good old days when Delaware was under democratic control and sent such men as the Bayards and Salisburys to the Senate, such men as Addicks were impossibilities, but the corrupt influences of republican election methods and money entered Delaware and that little State has been in political turmoil every since. But, as well says the Philadelphia North American in a recent tirade upon Mr. Addicks, "don't let's forget that Addicks, had he been ten times as knavish and ten times as spendthrifty in his genius for corruption, could not have wrought as he has without accomplices. If Addicks bought Delaware, who sold her?"

NO BETTER disposition of at least one of the members of the police force could be made than by stationing an officer at the corner of Wilkes and Fairfax streets. For half a century that neighborhood has been the scene of noisy and unseemly behavior on the part of crowds of youths who constantly gather thereabouts and often become disorderly and mischievous to the chronic annoyance of many of the residents and passerbys and to the detriment of some of the property, which in one instance, at least, has been defaced and injured. It is a mooted question whether or not the city could be held responsible for damage done property by crowds which the police allow to constantly congregate and commit depredations.

THE appointment of Harry S. New, of Indiana, as vice chairman of the republican national committee, was announced by Postmaster General Cortelyou last week. Mr. Cortelyou, as chairman of the committee, has authority to make such appointment, and upon his retirement Mr. New becomes the acting chairman. At the same time, Chairman Cortelyou appointed Representative Babcock to be the member of the republican national committee from Wisconsin. This is regarded as another administration slap at the La Follette faction, but when La Follette takes his seat in the Senate he will have his inning.

CADET ARROWOOD, who was last week dismissed from the navy on the charge of desertion, gave as his reason for leaving his ship (after having sent in his resignation) that it was impossible for him to lead a religious life and remain in the service. His cause of complaint may have been well founded, but did not warrant desertion, for a deserter is an abomination in the eyes of all honest men. Still, as a rule, neither the United States nor any other navy is the field to which one would go to select class leaders or Sunday school teachers.

IT HAS been suggested that the super officiousness of U. S. Minister Bowen at Caracas may have something to do with the troubles in Venezuela. If this is so, and there are reasons to believe that it is, his recall and the appointment of a man who would be persona grata to Venezuela might bring about a better condition of affairs between this and that government.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., March 27.

The President today promised Senator Daniel, of Virginia, and Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, President of the Jamestown Exposition, that, before leaving for his western hunting trip he would issue an executive proclamation inviting foreign governments to participate in the exposition, which is to take place in 1907.

Although the official announcement is to the effect that the administration has as yet taken no action upon Santo Domingo's proposition that the United States in an unofficial and irresponsible manner take charge of her finances it is more than probable that the suggestion will be adopted and Prof. J. H. Hollander will be transferred from his special commission to be Commissioner of the Interior appointed by the Santo Domingo government. The scheme is pronounced by nearly every official approached upon the subject to be an excellent one to solve the republic's difficulties. It covers all of the essential features of the Dillingham-Sanchez agreement without being likely to excite the animosity of the U. S. Senate. A protocol between the two countries would accomplish the same results but the senators would regard it as prima facie evidence of the President's defiance of them. There is already some gossip here to the effect that the proposition really came from Washington and not from Santo Domingo, and that it is merely another attempt by the President to deprive the Senate of its constitutional rights. The talk has it that the proposition really antedated the appointment off Prof. Hollander and that this appointment as special commissioner was used only as a cover to get him to the island and into action before publication of the proposition could be made. So far as can be discovered there is no ground for this gossip. Prof. Hollander is a financial expert and as treasurer of Porto Rico did excellent work. That is the principal item of his present mission but he will necessarily have to inquire into political conditions in order to ascertain the stability of the Morales administration. Should the President decide to name him for the consideration of Santo Domingo he would be obliged to concern himself very largely with the republic's politics. It is said in this connection that some time ago President Morales invited Prof. Hollander to become his financial adviser but the invitation was declined because the republic was unable to pay a sufficient salary. As receiver of the customs this salary could now be made many times larger.

Secretary of War Taft, who is acting Secretary of State; Assistant Secretary of State Adee and Senator Spooner, of the Senate committee on foreign relations, held a lengthy conference with the President today. At its conclusion Secretary Taft announced that the proposal of President Morales to select an American citizen to take charge of the custom-houses of Santo Domingo, and supervise the payment of American and European claims, was under consideration but that no conclusion has been reached.

The tune "Yankee Doodle" is another of our borrowed national airs, according to German authorities, and was first played in America by the Hessian mercenaries who came to overthrow the patriots. U. S. Consul Schumann, writing the State Department from Mainz, Germany, says that tune was first played as a county dance air in a district of the province Kur-Hesse called the 'Schwalm.' "Last year" says Mr. Schumann, "at the kirmess of the villageoff Wasenberg, when Yankee Doodle was played, the young men and girls swung into a true 'Schwalmer' dance, as though the music had been composed for it. During the war of 1776 the chief recruiting office for the enlistment of the Hessian hired soldiers was Ziegenhain, in Kur-Hesse. It therefore seems probable that the Hessian recruits from the Schwalm who served in the pay of Great Britain in America during the revolution and whose military band instruments consisted of bugles, fifes and drums only, carried with them the tune known to them from childhood, and played it as a march."

The Bureau of Insular Affairs has announced the personnel of the party which will accompany Secretary Taft to the Philippines. It includes Miss Alice Roosevelt and Senators Daniel, of Virginia, Representatives Jones, of Virginia, and Mrs. Jones. Miss Roosevelt's tour of the Oriental insular possessions of the United States is to be attended with much pomp and ceremony. It will begin July 1, when the party will sail from San Francisco on the steamer Manchuria. Honors such as are usually accorded to princesses of the royal and reigning houses of Europe will be shown the President's daughter at every stage of the journey.

M. Philipe Bunau-Varilla, former minister from Panama to the United States, reading of the difficulties into which the canal has fallen, has offered his services and his experience to President Roosevelt.

The plans for the re-organization of the Panama canal commission are being perfected by the President and Secretary Taft. Announcement of the retirement of the present members of the commission and of the appointment of their successors is expected to be made within the next day or two. Although the President has been advised that, under the law, there must be seven commissioners, it is possible that he may not name all of them at once. Up to this morning he had not, it is understood, definitely determined upon all of the appointments. When made, the duties of each will be so defined that the possibilities of internal squabblings in the commission and conflicts of authority will be reduced to a minimum.

Judge Charles E. Magoon, law officer of the bureau of insular affairs of the War Department, will be one of the new commissioners. He will be designated to act as the governor of the canal zone in place of General Davis. He will also assume the duties as United States Minister Plenipotentiary to Panama, now being performed by Mr. John Barrett. It is understood that Minister Barrett will shortly be given a leave of absence and then be provided for in another diplomatic post.

John Findlay Wallace, at present chief engineer of the canal, will also be made a member of the new commission. He will be given practically supreme authority in all matters pertaining to the engineering features of the work. The other engineer members of the commission will act as a consulting board which, it is understood, will include two of the following present members of the commission: Wm. H. Burr and Benjamin M. Harrod.

For the purely executive work of supervising the letting of contracts, the shipment of materials to the isthmus and the auditing of accounts, the President is looking among men who have had experience in handling large enterprises, like Horace G. Burt, former president of the Union Pacific; Leonor F. Loree, president of the Erie Railroad, and later of the B. & O; or Samuel Morse Felton, ex-president of the Chicago and Alton. Under the proposed plan the present expensive offices of the canal commission in this city will be abolished and comparatively few of the small army of clerks now employed will be retained here. Those remaining here will be transferred to the Bureau of Insular Affairs in the War Department and all of the accounts of the commission will be handled there.

The organization and management of the Panama Steamship Company will be greatly simplified and the expenses of the offices in New York, which are now about $150,000 a year, will be cut to less than half that amount. The Panama Railroad on the Isthmus will be placed under the direct control and management of Chief Engineer Wallace.

The government has about completed its preparation of the case against the Santa Fe Railroad on the charge of granting rebates and will present the information within a short time to the federal grand jury at Albuquerque, New Mexico. If the grand jury finds an indictment the prosecution of the case will be pushed with vigor. It is said that the prosecution will include not only the Santa Fe, but also the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company and possibly the Southeastern Railroad Company, as the law provides for the punishment of concerns receiving rebates as well as those granting them.

The full details of the proposed arrangement with Santo Domingo for the appointment of an American receiver of customs for that country have been received by the State Department and have been laid before the President and his official advisors for their decision. The question to be determined by the administration is whether the President has the authority to pledge the United States to a satisfactory performance of such receiver and afford him official protection in the prosecution of his work.

It is probable that a United States war vessel will be used to convey the remains of the Ambassador Azpiroz from Washington to Vera Cruz, Mexico, when they will be turned over to the Mexican government authorities.

Another large crowd attended the races at Benning today. A more beautiful day for the races could hardly have been desired.

News of the Day.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals has ordered a new trial for Curtis Jett, convicted in Breathitt county for the murder of J. B. Marcum.

By issuing debased copper currency officials of Chinese provincial mints are said to have profited to the extent of $13,000,000 annually.

The plant stock of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, at East Rome, Ga., were entirely destroyed by fire Saturday night, the loss being placed at $250,000.

The Dominican government has proposed a tentative plan for the collection of the customs duties at the southern ports pending action on the Dillingham-Sanchez treaty.

Fire in Carbon, Ind., Saturday, destroyed 20 business houses and 40 residences, causing a loss of $200,000. The business section of the town is practically wiped out.

Mrs. Potter Palmer, who, as a rule, lives about six or seven months of the year in Chicago, intends during the present year to divide her time between Paris and London. In order to feel at home in the latter city, she has rented Hampden House from the Duke of Abercorn for a term. It is the largest house in Green street and has a magnificent garden.

Two trans-Atlantic liners, the Parisian, of the Allan line, and the Albano, a Hamburg-American ship, both bound in, collided off the Halifax, N. S., harbor's entrance Saturday night. Both wore seriously damaged, but reached their docks and landed their passengers safely. The Parisian's stern touched bottom as she reached her wharf, while hard pumping kept the Albano free.

By the explosion of bombs, hurled last night in different sections of Warsaw, in acccordance with an elaborately prearranged revolutionary plot, Baron Carl von Nolken, chief of police of Warsaw; six policemen and a girl were seriously wounded. Two other policemen were shot, one of whom is dead, by the fleeing bomb-throwers. One bomb-thrower escaped and the other, wounded, is in custody. The occurrence has inflamed the passions of the thousands of revolutionary Poles in the city, and worse trouble is feared.

As a special mark of respect to Ambassador Aspiros, who died in Washington Friday, Mrs. Roosevelt will wear black at the great funeral, Tuesday noon, in St. Mathew's Catholic Church. The entire diplomatic corps and the Cabinet will attend. As a further tribute to the dead envoy, who was one of the most beloved of the foreign representatives in Washington, the American government will provide a special train to bear the remains to Mexico. A guard of American soldiers will accompany it the whole distance, and the President will probably send a personal representative with the train.

Troubles in Crete.

Athens, March 27.—Late advices from Crete indicate that there have been further clashes between the authorities and the people. At Lakkoi a riot occurred in which two rebels were killed. The shops at Canea are closed but everything is quiet. There is reason to believe that Prince George, on advice from Athens, has decided to grant a liberal constitution after the dissolution of the revolutionary assembly.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Virginia Swift, formerly Miss Day, died Friday at the home of her sister Mrs. E. M. Spillman, in Warrenton.

Lieut. Gov. Joseph E. Willard left Richmond Saturday for Boston, where he was called by the death of his father's sister.

It is said that ex-Gov. J. Hoge Tyler, of Radford, who has heretofore been counted against Martin, is an advocate of the Senator's claims as are also his sons.

The death of Mrs. Ellett occurred yesterday in Atlanta, where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dunbar Roy. She was the wife of T. H. Ellett, an alderman and wealthy citizen of Richmond.

Real estate is active; Virginia farmlands are in demands. Today there are more inquiries for Virginia properties than ever before. There is, too, plenty of land to supply the demand at reasonable figures.

THE WAR.

Peace by the first of May is predicted in official circles in St. Petersburg, although reticence is maintained concerning reported negotiations. Through diplomats in Washington, Paris and St. Petersburg the Associated Press has information that the Czar has been informed of Japan's terms, and that Copenhagen will be the scene of the first meeting of representatives of the belligerents to arrange a basis for ending the war.

One of Japan's conditions of peace, it is thought, might be the insistence upon a pledge from Russia that she will build no more warships for a term of years, it being feared that without such a pledge Russia would take advantage of a cessation of hostilities to rehabilitate her navy.

Russia's total army strength in Manchuria is estimated at 220,000 men.

The movements of the warships of Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron are causing many exciting rumors of the possibility of a fight been him and Admiral Togo. General Linevitch, according to the Russian War Office, continues his retreat, but the Russian officials are as mystified as ever over the movements of the Japanese which any moment may cut off the Russians from reaching Harbin. General Linevitch, in a report dated March 25, says there has been no change in the position of the armies.

The Chinese governor of Kirin is said to have received letters from Field Marshal Oyama informing him that the Japanese will enter Kirin on April 10.

The Russians expert the Japanese to land at Korzakovsk shortly, that port being free from ice early in April. There are 2,000 soldiers and prison guards on the island and 6,000 convicts.

General Gripenberg, who is removed from command of the second Manchurian army, is permitted to continue as aid-de-camp to the Czar.

Baron von Nolken, chief of police of Warsaw, has been seriously wounded by a bomb hurled at his carriage, in which he was hurrying to a police station into which another bomb had been thrown, wounding six policemen. While the terrorists are resorting to bloodshed and daily becoming bolder in their attacks, the commercial classes in the large Russian cities are declaring in favor of the liberal demands for the cessation of the war and for a constitution. The peasant movement also continues to spread. A conspiracy to distribute arms has been disclosed, in connection with which 800 arrests have been made.

For the first time since the war began Field Marshall Oyama, commander-in-chief of the Japanese armies, has spoken for publication. He says he has a high regard for the Russians. The officers and men are brave and able and fight well.

The modern Japanese army, he says, was drafted from all classes, yet it had fully realized the government's hopes.

Successful Flight.

Professor Montgomery's aeroplane was given a test Saturday night at San Jose, Cal., and a successful flight was made in it by John Maloney. Montgomery is professor of science in the Santa Clara Catholic College, and has been experimenting on flying machines for several years. Now he has completed a machine which can be guided and yet which flies like a bird with no use of motor or gas. Maloney on Saturday night took the machine up to a height of 3,000 feet by means of a hot-air balloon. Then the aeroplane was released, and it sailed above the city for half an hour, and finally landed at Montgomery's workshop. Soaring at six miles an hour, the aeroplane could be stopped and turned within forty feet. A contrary wind appears to make little difference in the speed.

The machine, which is called "Santa Clara," looks like a huge bird. The frame is of spruce timber and the wings are of fortified canvass. There are eight of these wings, and each is shaped like an isosceles triangle cut across the point. In each wing there is an upward curve constructed scientifically, with the same concavity that is to be found in the wings of a bird. The operator sits on a saddle, and the wings are worked partly by hands and partly by feet by means of stirrups and steel shafts. Steel wires preserve the shape of the wings, and the guiding is done from the back.

Say Girl Was Murdered.

Warrants were issued Saturday night for the arrest of Frank Smith and a young man named McDonnell, of Benwood, W. Va., in connection with the death of Hilda Shubart, whose dead body was found on the hillside near her home, early last week. Smith, who, it is said, was engaged to the young woman, and McDonnell found the girl's body, and have been under police surveillance. Warrants were also issued at the same time for three other young men thought to know something of the manner of the girl's death. The warrants are now in the hands of officers, and the young men are being looked for in Wheeling and Benwood. What the warrants charge has not been made public. The coroner's inquest into the cause of the death of Hilda Schubart was held yesterday afternoon and resulted in the jury finding a verdict that Miss Schubart came to her death from strangulation by a person unknown to the authorities.

Today's Telegraphic News

Good Road Meeting.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, March 27.—A big meeting in interest of the good roads will be held at Charlottesville tomorrow and the candidate for State offices are to be present. The Governor and Senator Martin, have been invited, and both will attend and speak. Messrs. Willard, Swanson and others are also expected to go.

Appeared Under Protest.

Cleveland, O., March 27.—Mrs Cassie L. Chadwick appeared before Judge Tayler in the Federal Court this morning under protest. She had been summoned to be present when United States District Attorney Sullican and Assistant Gary and Attorneys Dawley and Wing, representing her, argued the motion for a new trial for her. She was convicted March 11 of conspiracy in connection with the failure of the Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin. United States Marshal Chandler sent word to the woman at the county jail that she should be ready to appear in the Federal Court at 9:15. Mrs. Chadwick sent back word that she "was unable to get into her waist," the neuralgia from which she formerly suffered apparently having returned. District Attorney Sullivan said it would be necessary for her to appear. Chandler then sent word that she must be brought into court "even if she had to wear a raincoat." When the deputies appeared at the jail Mrs. Chadwick refused to accompany them. Marshal Chandler ordered that she be taken to the court by force if necessary. Later, upon the advice of her lawyers, she consented to appear without further protest. There were seven counts in the indictment on which she was tried, of which she was held guilty. The maximum penalty under the federal statutes is two years' imprisonment and $10,000 fine for each count.

Automobile Accidents.

Los Angeles, Cals., March 27.—There were two serious automobile accidents here yesterday in which one woman was killed and three other people injured. A machine driven by Sherman Pease, son of Niles Pease, president of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association, was struck by a Hollywood Interurban car. Mrs. Pease was instantly killed. Pease was thrown out and suffered concussion of the brain. Mrs. Decatur E. Welcome, wife of a prominent real estate dealer, was also badly injured. Mr. Welcome saved himself by jumping. He did not see the car in time, and being unable to back the machine because of the sandy road, could not prevent the collision. The trolley car was going at a high rate of speed. No one on the trolley car was injured. In another part of the city, Mary Britwhistle, a young woman, while alighting from a street car, was struck by an automobile driven by Barbe Hook, and probably fatally injured.

Defended Rockefeller Gift.

Bristol, Conn., March 27.—Rev. Calvin B. Moody, of the Congregational church, a member of the American Board, in his sermon last night, preached on the text: "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness, thereof," and discussed the recent gift of $100,000 by John D. Rockefeller to the American Board. He contended that the money should be accepted, as it would cease to be tainted the minute it was diverted to proper uses. "He said:" If Satan himself gave me $100,000 and instructed me to use it for mission schools in Turkey or other good purpose I should accept it with thanks. I shall look to see Mr. Rockefeller send his check to the American Board of a full million and another to the Congregational Home Missionary Society for the same amount, and the same to the other missionary societies. Then his colleagues should follow suit. I think the Lord would soon remove the taint from the money."

Attempted Assassination.

Tangier, March 17.—An attempt was made to assassinate Walter B. Harris, correspondent of the London Times, here. A former Moorish servant was Mr. Harris's assailant, and he attacked the correspondent with a knife. A watch chain stopped the blade and only a slight wound was inflicted. Mr. Harris has been the victim of other assaults on the part of the natives, in Tangier. On one occasion he was ambushed and captured by the tribesmen and another time an attack was made by armed men on his house, but the tribesmen were driven off.

Rioting in the Crimea.

St. Petersburg, March 27.—The situation at Yalta in the Crimea, where there has already been serious rioting, is becoming decidedly worse. Rioters wrecked the police station, and released a number of prisoners, who were confined there. The chief of police was wounded in the attack. Later, the mob pillaged the shops, and burned several buildings. Troops are guarding the treasury and postoffice building and reinforcements are being hurried to the city to quell the rioting.

Refused to Grant Writ.

Richmond, Va., March 27.—The Supreme Court today refused to grant a writ of error in the case of Charles Fishburne, a wealthy Roanoke broker, who was found guilty of the murder of Dr. Frederick A. Lefew and sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary. An application for pardon will be made to the Governor.

Wm. M. Davis, a brother-in-law of the late Vice President Garrett A. Hobart, died today at his residence in Phillipsburg, N. J. He was 60 years of age.

Letter to Rev. Father Cutler,

Alexandria, Va.

Rev. Sir: This story cut two ways, and teaches two sets of people.

Father Galvin, Westerly, R. I., had his church and residence painted. Good job; and this is how he went at it.

Measured all carefully—seems to have known Devoe.

Then got bids from the painters, paint to be supplied by them and by him.

Saved $70 by using Devoe.

One of those painters ought to have got that money. Yours truly,

Best Remedy for Constipation.

"The finest remedy for constipation I ever used is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says Mr. Eli Butler, of Frankville, N. Y. "They act gently and without any unpleasant effect, and leave the bowels in a perfectly natural condition." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Narrow Escape of Workmen.

New York, March 27.—Five men were injured by an explosion in the East river tunnel, near the foot of Joralemon street, this morning. They were working in a chamber about twenty feet from the Brooklyn shore under air pressure that was so heavy that the top of the tunnel was blown out and with it one of the men whose appearance on the surface of the river was the first knowledge of the accident that was had by those outside. The pressure of the air was so great that for a time it prevented the water from filling the chamber where the men were working, and enabled workmen in the adjoining chamber, who were notified of the accident by an electric device, to open the gate and drag themselves to safety. None was fatally hurt. Richard Creegan, 23 years old, of 26 Henderson street, Jersey City, is the man who was blown through the roof of the tunnel and through the water. Although half stunned by the force of the explosion Creegan grabbed two sacks of hay with which he tried to stop the aperture in the tunnel's roof. The compressed air and the water were fighting for mastery, and at the moment the air was apparently getting the better of the struggle, Creegan was sucked up through the opening into the water, whence he rose to the surface, injured scarcely at all. The accident occurred two hundred feet from the Brooklyn shore. The tunnel was being driven fifteen feet beneath the river's bed, and it was through this mass of sand and mud that this is the first time that tunnel men have been saved when water has broken in on them in a forward compartment.

Soldiers Mutilating Themselves.

St. Petersburg, March 27.—It is asserted that as a consequence of the decision to send the Guards regiments to the war, the soldiers in these regiments are mutilating themselves in order to render themselves unfit for service in the field. Some of the Guards, it is said, have cut off four of their fingers while others have used drugs to produce palpitation of the heart. Hundreds of such cases have been discovered in the regiments. The official organ, the Pravitelstveny Vestnik, publishes an official decree ordering a rigorous investigation of the matter, and the punishment.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 27.—There was considerable irregularity in the early dealings in the stock market. The declines represented from London in many American railway shares suggested some caution to local traders, especially as there were no special developments over Sunday to particularly inspire caution. The international list showed fractional losses. The industrial list generally was strong.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Capt. Woodbury Kane and Mrs. Sallie Hargous Elliott, both of New York, were married at Aiken, S. C., this afternoon.

Adrian Iselin, the head of the Iselin family of bankers, is dying at his home in Davenport Neck, N. Y., of old age. Mr. Iselin is 88 years of age.

A freight wreck occurred on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, near Clarksville Tenn., today. Four men are reported killed, one seriously injured and ten cars derailed.

Maj. Charles D. Hinton, U. S. A., in charge of the recruiting station at Davenport, Iowa, was found dead in the St. James Hospital this morning. Death was due to paralysis of the heart. He was a native of Washington.

A dispatch from Suffolk, Va., says as the outcome of a lovers quarrel, near Driver, last night, Anna McGwynn was shot in the head by Lucy Ely. Surgeons have not been able to extract the bullet, which came from a small calibre revolver, and Miss McGwynn's condition is regarded as critical.

The United State cruiser Galveston, which left the Norfolk, Va., navy yard on Thursday on her maiden voyage, returned for repairs having broken down while 300 miles down the coast. Quick repairs to the damage, which is said to be in no way serious, will be made and the Galveston will proceed within a few days.

FOREIGN NEWS.

It is stated that General Batienoff has been appointed to the command of the third Russian army.

Reports from St. Petersburg say that there has been a renewal of the strikes in several of the quarters. The number of workmen now out is placed at 35,000.

The Pope held a consistory today. No new cardinals were nominated but an address was delivered in which regret was expressed at the persecution of the church.

Eight steamers have been chartered by private firms in Sydney, Australia to convey to Hongkong about 10,000 horses which were purchased on behalf of Japan.

Ships which have arrived at Mombassa, East Africa, report that thirty four colliers, mostly German vessels, are anchored at Jibutil, waiting for Admiral Rodjestvensky's fleet.

The notorious Catanian brigand, Croce Levishis, has been killed by a band of Carabiniers near Pelagonia, Italy, where he had gone to receive $10,000 blackmail from a rich farmer.

The new Japanese loan of $150,000,000 half of which is to be underwritten in America, was selling in London this afternoon at a premium of 2 1-3 per cent. The prospectus will be formally issued tomorrow.

Ambassador Robert H. McCormick, who has been transferred to Paris, had a farewell audience with the Czar and Empress today. In the course of the interview their majesties presented Mr. McCormick with their portraits.

A dispatch from Saljany, Transcaucasia, states that Persian brigands have crossed the frontier several times recently and harassed Russian villages. A fight with the brigands occurred on Saturday in which five policemen were killed.

The Paris Temps says the syndicate which was formed to take the new Japanese loan is making strenuous efforts to float the loan. Subscriptions have even been sought in France which proves that the English market is becoming saturated with Japanese securities.

Commander Booth Tucker, who founded the American Colonies of the salvation army, will reach New York tomorrow, from Europe, and proceed at once to Amity, Colorado, the principal salvation army colony in America. Commander Booth Tucker will meet H. Ridor Haggard.

Count Boni de Castellane spoke today in the French Chamber of Deputies on the question of the separation of church and state. The count declared that the bill as framed, would mean the destruction of the church by the state through a hypocritical measure to expel the secular priests from France.

Beginning today, the second class fare on the American line steamers between Southampton and New York, will be increased ten shillings which will be continued throughout the year. The first class season will begin this year a month earlier than usual. It is understood the changes are the outcome of an agreement between the various trans-Atlantic lines.

The Echo de Paris has a dispatch from St. Petersburg, which says that persons in the immediate circle of the Czar's friends and advisers, declare that peace is impossible and that it would be disastrous for the government and for the prestige of the army to make peace at present. The conclusion is drawn from this fact that the court influence in favor of continuing the war has prevailed upon the Czar over the advocacy of peace.

THE METHODISTS.

The report of the General Board of Education occupied nearly the entire time of Saturday's session of the Baltimore Conference, M. E. Church South, in Winchester, and while all the educational institutions under the control of conference showed healthy growth, the report occasioned lengthy discussion. It was finally adopted.

The project of holding preachers' institutes is commended by the report, and undergraduate ministers are urged to take advantage of the church correspondence schools.

The following first-year deacons were passed upon: Revs. Jerry C. Jeter, Cumberland Circuit; J. D. Pope, Huntersville, W. Va., Circuit; William N. Compton, Joseph H. Balthis, John W. Smith, Joseph S. Valliant and William C. Smith. Local preachers advanced to deacon's orders were: Revs. John C. Copenhaver, of the Baltimore district; Henry A. Beach, of the Washington district, and Logan M. Malls, of Roanoke district.

The case of Rev. Claude M. Hesser, of Taylors, Md., which has been before Bishop Wilson, was disposed of by Bishop Duncan. Mr. Hesser was to have been ordained, but a church law rendered necessary the postponement of his ordination till next conference.

Dr. Tigert made a statement that the membership in the Southern Methodist Church had increased during the past year nearly 27,000 and that the total membership of the church had now reached the high tide mark of 1,600,000.

The following ministers were admitted to the conference on trial: Rev. John Lee Brooks and John C. Copenhaver, of the Baltimore district; George E. Kercheval, of Winchester district; Charles L. Delong, of Roanoke district; W. Franklin Lowance and Albert Vanderventer, Lewisburg district.

Yesterday the elders who were passed on Friday were ordained by Bishop Duncan. At night the deacons were ordained. It is reported that the committee appointed to try Rev. J. O. Knott, of Lexington, on charges of deception which were preferred by the Salem church, will recommend the minister's acquittal.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Following were Saturday's proceedings of the Court of Appeals:

Peoples' National Bank of Lynchburg, vs. Virginia Textile Company and others, argued and submitted.

Next cases to be called: The Citizens Bank of Norfolk, receivers, vs. George W. Taylor & Company. Reager's administrator and others vs. Chappelear and others. West vs. City of Newport News and Robertson vs. City of Staunton, being Nos. 82, 84, 85, and 90 on argument docket.

Beggers in London.

From the report of the London police it appears that 1,925 persons were arrested during 1904 for begging in the streets of London, and of these 1,539 were convicted and sentenced to imprisonment of from one week to three months. It is calculated that 4,000 persons make a living in London by begging and that their average income amounts to about $7.50 a week, or a total of over $1,500,000 a year. Many of the persons arrested were found in possession of sums of money and even of bank books showing deposits aggregation hundreds of dollars. The police profess to be unable to check the evil, because the beggars migrate from the quarter of the metropolis to another after each conviction.

Epidemics in England.

Various parts of England are at present in the grip of serious epidemics. The Lincoln typhoid epidemic is assuming serious proportions, and there are now over 800 cases under treatment. The Bury Elementary Day School was closed Saturday in consequence of an outbreak of smallpox. The epidemic of measles at Nottingham has compelled the education committee to close nearly 20 of the schools, and unless there are signs of a speedy abatement of the disease all the schools in the town will be closed. The medical officer has knowledge of more than 700 cases, most of which are in the poorer quarters, where the conditions of life lend themselves to the spread of an epidemic.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Tuesday; light to fresh southerly winds.

The New Bank Building.

What heretofore has been known as the Miller building, situated on the north side of King street, between Fairfax and Royal, and built in 1858 by the late B. H. Jenkins and E. Francis, has been remodeled, strengthened and reconstructed throughout on modern fire proof lines by Mr. Jos. F. Rodgers for the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, and now ranks among the most showy and noticeable structures in this city. A new front, which is 35 feet on King street with an elevation of 50 feet, has been built on a substantial brick and cement foundation. The base is of light-colored granite with a massive surbase of Indiana limestone. The superstructure, ornamented with terra cotta, is of light brick and the facade at the elevation of two stories presents an imposing and attractive entablature, supported by four well proportioned pilasters with capitals of the Corintnian order. In the frieze has been artistically worked the title "Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation." The cornice is heavy and projecting, strengthened by massive modillions, above which are four plain pilasters, upon which rests an architrave surmounted with artistic finials. The entrance to the banking house, the height of which is defined by terra cotta arabesques, is by three granite steps between two elaborate gas or electric lamps upon granite pedestals. The windows are large, the semi circular transoms are protected by iron lattice work and the lower portion by iron mullions. Five similarly protected windows open upon the market courtway on the east, thus giving ample light and air to the interior which is strikingly handsome in proportions and finish. Twelve pilasters with capitals of the Ionic order uphold a heavily-blocked ceiling, each angle of which is ornamented with well designed suffits. A commodious steel fireproof vault, built on the most approved plans, prettily finished and thoroughly equipped with modern appliances and conveniences, is in full view. The public floor area is granita with marble mosaic borderings, and the heating arrangement, by hot water circulation, is thorough and complete. The stationary furniture is of quartered oak, suitably designed and conveniently arranged to facilitate the work of the various officers, each station being guarded with a light open-work metal screen. While the first floor will be strictly used as a banking house, the second and third stories will be otherwise utilized.

On Saturday last the attaches of the institution were engaged in removing the fixtures of the bank from the old building into the new structure, and this morning the latter was thrown open to the public. Persons who have had business with the bank were profuse in their admiration of the new building with its modern appointments.

A picture of the bank was published in the Gazette July 2nd last.

The monthly meeting of the directors of the corporation was held in the new building today, and all present expressed their approval of the building and its modern conveniences.

The Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation is one of a number of enterprises due to the efforts of Mr. C. Jones Rixey, and will be the principal office of nearly all of these concerns. Its authorized capital is $1,000,000, and up to this time branches have been established in Gordonsville, Madison, Dillwyn, Lovingston, Remington, Culpeper and Charlottesville.

The officers of the Alexandria corporation are: C. Jones Rixey, president and treasurer; John P. Robinson, first vice president; Gardner L. Boothe, second vice president: Norton & Boothe, general counsel. The directors are C. J. Rixey, Joseph E. Willard, Henry Baader, J. P. Robinson, Park Agnew, George S. French, Gardner L. Boothe, C. C. Leadbeater, J. K. M. Norton, Frank Hume and Henry K. Field. The various departments of the corporation are now in charge of the following: Bookkeeper, Mr. C. P. Waller; deposits, Mr. George H. Robinson; discounts, Mr. William J. Boothe, and bonding, Mr. Samuel L. Monroe.

The business of the concern is expanding rapidly and although the corporation was organized less than a year ago the statement of its financial condition published in Saturday's Gazette showed resources considerably over $400,000.

Outing.

Saturday night was the occasion for a happy gathering at Hotel Fleischmann. It was the annual outing of the officers of the District militia. Mr. Chas. H. Ennis, a prominent young lawyer of the District of Columbia, was the Washington guest of honor and acted as toastmaster. During the evening the toastmaster, in a happy speech, presented Dr. Luce with a handsome gold service medal which was appropriately responded to. A speech by Capt. Zea was the feature of the evening, as it abounded in wit and humor. The supper furnished was of the usual order at Fleischmann's Hotel, first class in every particular. Among those present were Major House, Lieut. Luce, Lieut. McCathran, Capt. Coope, Lieut. Atwell, Capt. Shreve, Lieut. Shreve, Capt. Grove, Lieut Ryan, Capt. Ferree, Lieut Giesey, Sergt. Maj. Wasgott, Capt. Zea, Lieut. Ennis and Sergt. Durnbaugh. Each member of the assembled company furnished amusement for all and voted the outing at Hotel Fleischmann the best ever held. Mr. Geo. H. Hayden, in an appropriate speech, welcomed the guests of the hotel in the confines of the Old Dominion.

W. C. T. U.

During the past week the Allison W. C. T. U. gained about 35 members; the collections during the meetings amounted to $16.50. Too much credit cannot be given to the women who worked so faithfully. The beautiful reception given to Mr. Tinling on the day of his arrival deserves special mention. It was in charge of Mesdames Jones and Buckley. The color scheme was pink; dainty refreshments were served, while the British flag held a place of honor. Mrs. Oscar Pierpoint was chairman of the decorating committee, and the tastefully decorated altars each night evidenced the faithfulness of her work.

Personal.

Chief Webster of the police force, who has been quite sick for some time is able to be out again.

Mr. Edward L. Daingerfield and family, after spending the winter in Egypt, sailed from Naples March 24, and are due to arrive in New York April 5.

The condition of Mr. Samuel Johnson, jr., who was burned by the explosion of gasoline last Wednesday night, continues serious.

Mr. Courtland Lukens, of Fairfax, who has been quite sick for the past few weeks, is able to be out again and was today at his office in this city.

Mr. James Breen, flagman at Prince and Henry streets, is confined to his home by sickness.

Mr. Harry Edwards, who has been visiting his relatives in this city, has returned to his home in Downington, Pa.

Mrs. John H. Strider, formerly of this city, but now of Susquehanna, Pa., is visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Isaac Edney, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson for drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Spencer Jones, colored, arrested by acting Chief Smith charged with disorderly conduct was dismissed.

Three men, arrested by Officers Knight and Ferguson charged with disorderly conduct on an electric car, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.

Richard Burnett, arrested by Officer Smith charged with selling liquor on Sunday and without a license, was dismissed.

A white man, arrested at the instance of his son, was dismissed.

Death of Dr. Murdoch.

Dr. Russell Murdoch, who died in Baltimore last week, was a brother of Mrs. Andrew Jamieson, formerly of this city. He was an alumnus of the University of Virginia, and served in the Confederate army with distinction. After the war he went abroad and studied in several universities, and on his return to Baltimore took up the practice of diseases of the ear, and at the time of his death was one of the most notable aurists in the country. He was a man of great worth and deservedly popular. He left several daughters and several nephews and nieces—the Linds, well known to many citizens of Alexandria and Fairfax county.

Bishop Gibson's Appointments.

The following are the appointments in this vicinity of Bishop Gibson of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, April 21 (Good Friday), A. M., St. George's, Fredericksburg; P. M., Trinity, Fredericksburg; 23 (Easter Day), A. M., Christ Church, Alexandria; P. M., Grace Church, Alexandria; 24, A. M., Grace Church, Fauquier county; P. M., St. Stephen's Fauquier county; 25, St. John's Remington; 26, Christ Church, Brandy Station; 27, St. Stephen's, Culpeper county; 28, A. M., St. Thomas' Orange county; P. M. Woodberry Forest Orange county; 30, A. M., St. Paul's, Alexandria; P. M., Theological Seminary.

Ordered to Vacate.

It is said that the lessees of certain lands adjoining the Southern Railway tracks southeast of this city have been notified to vacate the same within the next thirty days. This property, it will be remembered, was acquired several years ago, it being said at the time that the railway company purposed erecting shops on the same and also to extend the Union street track around the city, connecting with the main stem near Roberts' Mill. The company has not announced the disposition they intend to make of the land in the future.

Accused Dismissed.

Richard Burnett was arrested this morning by Officer Smith charged with selling liquor on Sunday and without a license. The warrant was issued on a statement made by a man named Murray who had told acting Lieutenant Young that he purchased whisky from Burnett yesterday. When the witness was put upon the stand this morning he averred that he attempted to purchase liquor from the accused, but the latter refused to sell it. Burnett was accordingly dismissed.

Sunday Star.

The Evening Star Newspaper Company of Washington issued yesterday morning its first Sunday edition. It contained 56 pages of interesting news and miscellaneous reading, together with a Sunday magazine. The Evening Star has for over half a century been a Washington institution, and by the enterprise of its owners it enjoys a large patronage. The Sunday Star is a model newspaper in every respect and its success is assured.

Trades Council.

Alexandria Trades Council, of this city, will hold a series of meetings at Sarepta Hall beginning with Monday, April 3. These meeting will be for the public in general and the subjects will be on economic questions. Mr. Charles Newburgh, of Washington, will be the speaker next Monday night and will take as his subject "A Brief Outline of the Science of Political Economy," illustrated by charts. These meetings will be held every month.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Emeline Thompson took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her son, Mr. Edgar F. Thompson, 307 south Lee street. A large number of relatives and friends were present, including many from Washington. The services were conducted by Rev. F. J. Brooke. The pallbearers were Messrs. Clarence Moore, R. E. Knight, Oscar F. Phillips, George E. Markell, William B. Entwisle and J. Douglas Stanton.

The Fishery.

The fine weather this morning imparted animation to Fishtown, although there have as yet been no receipts. The houses were open and everything in readiness to handle the catch. The schooner L. E. Bramble had taken on a load of barrels for one of the river shores. Some herring were received from St. George's Island yesterday and shad have been caught at Quantico.

Death of Old Resident.

Mrs. Anna M. Crump, an old and well-known resident, died at the Old Woman's Home last night. The deceased was the widow of C. E. Crump. She was 84 years old.

Fight.

Two young men—one an Alexandrian and the other a Baltimorean—yesterday repaired to the neighborhood of St. Elmo for the purpose of settling a chronic friction. Nature's weapons only were used by the belligerents, the Baltimorean, it is said, emerging second-best. The combattants, it is alleged, were victims of the green-eyed monster.

Wanton Cruelty.

Mr. Charles M. Griffin reports several acts of cruelty upon the part of some individual who has recently entered his stable and with a hot iron tortured two of his horses. The Shetland horse, which he generally uses in his wagon, was seriously injured, much of the hair having been burned from its back.

Auction Sale Tomorrow.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, will offer for sale at noon tomorrow in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall a house and lot on the east side of Fayette street, between King and Cameron.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A fight occurred between some negroes on Prince street near West yesterday evening.

The steam dredge recently at work at Fishtown is to be put to work deepening Messrs. W. A. Smoot & Co.'s docks.

People whose premises abut on the alley running through the square bounded by King, Cameron, Henry and Fayette streets, are complaining of its unsanitary condition.

The Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company has laid rails on C street, between 13½ and 12th streets, Washington, the approach to the new depot.

The weather yesterday morning was fair and mild, and there were indications of a pleasant early spring Sunday. In the afternoon, however, cloudy weather and occasional showers followed.

A game of baseball was played yesterday at Fort Washington between Companies Forty-four and Seventeen, coast guards, resulting in a victory for the former team by the score of 3 to 2.

It is reported that some of those interested in the new ferry line have gone to Norfolk to look at two ferry boats their that might be temporarily used on the Washington and Alexandria ferry line.

It is understood that the colored man who came here about two weeks ago suffering from a light case of smallpox, has recovered and been discharged as well. The house in which he was confined has been fumigated.

A meeting of the Alexandria Post, Travelers' Protective Association, was held at the Hotel Rammel Saturday at which arrangements were made for sending fifteen delegates from this city to the annual meeting to be held this year in Petersburg.

In an item in this column in Saturday's Gazette concerning the labor troubles at the brick yards in Alexandria county it was stated in the last few lines, "that the mayor contends," &c. It should have read "the manager." The Mayor of Alexandria has nothing to do with the troubles.

B. F. Williams, of Washington, came to this city Saturday and identified the man who was struck and killed by a train near St. Asaph about ten days ago as his brother-in-law Maury Williams, of Fredericksburg. The remains had been held by Mr. B. Wheatley until last Wednesday when they were interred. The remains were shipped today to Fredericksburg by Mr. Wheatley.

Deaths in Storms.

Violent storms throughout the territory of Oklahoma Saturday resulted in four deaths and numerous injuries to other persons. Near Watonga, Dean E. Richmond and John Thomas, each 17 years old, were killed by lightning, their bodies being burned to a crisp. At New Weatherford lightning struck and killed Charles R. Schoonover, a wealthy farmer. Near Kaw City heavy rains have swollen the streams and Saturday Orville Pemberton was drowned in Salt creek while trying to cross in a boat. Near Syrain Woods county, a cyclone demolished the house of Charles Bronson, critically injuring Bronson, his wife and Matilda Hickman, a neighbor, three of the latter's ribs being broken.

Got Off Cheap.

He may well think he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted constipation or indigestion is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant and certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; guaranteed.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

By the Tonic Route.

The pills that act as a tonic and not as a drastic purge are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottle cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by all druggists.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF REAL ESTATE NEAR NAUCK'S STATION, ALEXANDRIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a decree entered in the chancery suit between Bertha E. Bradbury, complainant, and Charles P. Corbett and others, defendants, depending in the Circuit Court of Alexandria county, the undersigned commissioners appointed by the court to make sale of the real estate mentioned in said suit will offer for sale at public auction at the Court House in said county on the 24th day of April, 1905,

at about 12 o'clock m., certain real estate of which the late Sewell B. Corbett died seized and possessed near Nauck's Station, on the Washington and Ohio Railroad and lying on and near Four Mile Run. First. Tract number 1, beginning at the southwest corner of the tract recently conveyed to Cockrell and others and extending southeasterly to the said railroad track, reserving, however, a right of way for tracts Nos. 2 and 3, containing 23.54 acres of land with all appurtenances. Second. Tract No. 2, beginning at the northeast corner of tract No. 1 and south of the land sold to Cockrell, and running to the right or way of the railroad company, reserving a right of way for tracts Nos. 1 and 3, containing 23.045 acres of land and all appurtenances. Third. Tract No. 3, lying between the railroad and Four Mile Run, containing 26.19 acres, all of the said tracts being particularly described on the survey and plat marked No. 2, filed in the papers of said suit. Fourth, Tract No. 4, containing 13.885 acres and near the Columbia Turnpike, and being the balance of the cemetery lot and particularly described on the survey and plat marked No. 3 filed in said suit.

Terms of Sale: One-third of the purchase money cash, and the residue thereof in two equal payments at six and twelve months, bearing interest, the deferred payments to be evidenced by the notes of the purchasers and to be secured by a retention of the title to or a deed of trust on the land. Conveyancing at the cost of the purchasers

MONDAY EVENING, MAR. 27, 1905.

The Point of the Cape of Good Hope.

Cape point, which terminates the mighty headland known as the Cape of Good Hope, consists of a towering promontory of sandstone, which rises from the sea to an altitude of 840 feet. At the base of this stands a big solitary column which is known as Vasco da Gama's pillar. The lighthouse which here illuminates the meeting place of the Atlantic and Indian oceans is one of the most important and most useful of its kind. It is visible from a distance of thirty-six miles. The cliff scenery is wild and sublime, the rocks are magnificent, and the far reaching sea, with the fierce surf beating on the iron bound coast, is impressive. In the water directly beneath the cliff sharks are abundant. A traveler describing the scene says that on the occasion of his visit so numerous were the evil looking monsters that the sight as he descended the cliff was most unpleasant. A slip and a fall into the sea at this point would mean that the unfortunate would be torn instantly limb from limb by the ravening brutes.

Chess and a Battleship.

Admiral Charles E. Clark, who took the battleship Oregon around Cape Horn and into action at Santiago, owed his appointment as commander of that boat to his skill as a chess player. Captain Clark was at San Francisco in command of the gunboat Bennington. When ashore he spent much time in the chess room of the Mechanics' library, where he met some of the best players in the city. When the time came to appoint a man to command the Oregon, a friend of Clark's in the navy department at Washington put his name forward. "You should see that man play chess," said he and went on to describe his intense application and determination, adding, "And that's why I think he can bring the battleship around safely if any one can." Three hours later Clark received orders to assume command of the Oregon and take her at once to Cuban waters.—Argonaut.

The Nimble Paragraph.

It is a most extraordinary thing that some of our most successful novelists cannot turn out a newspaper paragraph to save their lives. In most novels there is some page or other on a suppositious clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the events under narration, and in ninety cases out of a hundred the matter that makes up the "clipping" is most unreal. The truth of the matter is that all the training in the world will not enable a man to write in this manner unless he has been through the mill and had all the nonsense deleted by the remorseless subeditor. Our novelists do not have their manuscript hacked and chopped about by this skillful executioner, and their pseudo newspaper clippings are models of what the real thing is not.—Journalist.

The Turnpike Era.

Between the years 1790 and 1840 innumerable plans were made for the creation of turnpikes in the United States. There had been one great success, the Lancashire turnpike in Pennsylvania, and then came countless other projects. In 1811 New York had 137 chartered roads, with a total length of 4,500 miles, and the sum required to build them amounted to $7,500,000. An era of canal digging and then of railroad building followed this period, but the canal promoters and railroad men had great difficulty in advancing their schemes. They were considered insane when they insisted that the mountains and plains could be conquered by these means of transportation.

Nature's Beauties.

Character is fed largely through the eye and ear. The thousand voices in nature, of bird and insect and brook, the soughing of the wind through the trees, the scent of flower and meadow, the myriad tints in earth and sky, in ocean and forest, mountain and hill, are just as important for the development of a real man as the education he receives in the schools. If you take no beauty into your life through the eye or the ear your nature will be hard, juiceless, unattractive.—Success.

The Horsefly.

The horsefly is the most cruel and bloodthirsty of the entire fly family. He is armed with a most formidable weapon, which consists of four lancets so sharp and strong that they will penetrate leather. He makes his appearance in June. The female is armed with six lancets, with which she bleeds both cattle and horses and even human beings.—Colman's Rural World.

Procrastination.

"One of the greatest evils in life," said the elderly woman, "is procrastination."

"I think so, too," replied the young married woman. "I don't see the sense of putting off your golden wedding anniversary till you are sixty or seventy years old."

Her Postscript.

"Dear Mr. Hicks," she wrote, "I am sorry that what you ask I cannot grant. I cannot become your wife.—Yours sincerely, Ethel Burrows." Then she added: "P.S.—On second thought, dear George, I will marry you. Do come up tonight and see your own true Ethel."

Buried Treasure.

Medium—I can tell you about a buried treasure. Patron—Please don't! My husband is always tooting that in my ears. Medium—Does he know anything about a buried treasure? Patron—Yes; his first wife.

When a man dies, his widow begins to look for valuable papers. The only papers the average man has are receipted ice and coal bills.—Atchison Globe.

Reassuring a Visitor.

"I don't see why you didn't want me to say anything about Miss Mixley's age, mamma," said Tommy, looking at the guest. "She doesn't look nearly so old as grandfa—ouch! Who's that a-pinchin' me on the laig?"

Eccentric.

Grimes—My wife's the queerest woman that ever lived. Gorman—Yes; that's what people thought when she married you.—Boston Transcript.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dettilson, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest. It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promply like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
